Proposed 2013 Bond Program Information Guide Available

New Braunfels, Texas — The City of New Braunfels has produced an Information Guide to provide the public with an overview of the upcoming Bond Election set for May 11, 2013.

There will be four propositions on the ballot: Proposition 1 Street Improvements; Proposition 2 Drainage and Flood Control Improvements; Proposition 3 Parks, Recreation and Open Space Improvements; and Proposition 4 Economic Development. The guide features frequently asked questions and project descriptions for each of the propositions as well as information on early voting, registering to vote, and polling locations by City Council district.

Hard copies of the publication are available at the City's Municipal Building, 424 S. Castell Ave., the Parks and Recreation Administrative Office, 110 Golf Course Rd., and the Public Library, 700 E. Common St. Copies of the booklet may also be downloaded from www.nbtexas.org/bondelection. Additional information about the Proposed 2013 Bond Program, including project maps and more detailed project descriptions, is available on the same website.

"We are taking a number of initiatives to provide our voters with the facts concerning the bond program," said Mayor Gale Pospisil. "I, along with others, am available to address community groups on the subject and I encourage interested organizations to contact me to arrange for a speaker."
