City Hosts Air Force Band of the West

New Braunfels, TX –The City of New Braunfels is pleased to present a great family concert featuring the United States Air Force Band of the West. This free event, entitled “Celebrating America,” is open to the public and will be held from 7 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. on Friday, June 28st at the New Braunfels Civic/Convention Center, 375 South Castell Avenue. Doors will open at 6:00 p.m. to accommodate the large number of attendees expected.

The band is based out of Lackland Air Force Base and has the reputation as one of the finest military concert bands in America. The Concert Band features approximately 45 musicians and its repertoire consists of music ranging from serious symphonic band pieces to Broadway musicals, Sousa marches and Top-40 hits.

“We invite citizens and visitors alike to come and enjoy this special community presentation,” said Robert Camareno, Interim City Manager. “This versatile and talented group travels thousands of miles every year to perform and we are fortunate to have them in New Braunfels to kick off the Fourth of July holiday week.”

The Airmen assigned to the Air Force Band of the West are highly-trained professional musicians who have dedicated themselves to serving their country through music. The band has performed for presidents, heads of state, and dignitaries from around the world earning an outstanding reputation among America's military bands.
