Tenth Mayor's Citizens' Forum Scheduled

New Braunfels, Texas — On Thursday, October 3rd, from 6:30–8:00 p.m., Mayor Gale Pospisil will host a citizens' forum at the New Braunfels Civic/Convention Center, 375 S. Castell Avenue.

Shannon Mattingly, City of New Braunfels Planning and Community Development Director, will be the featured speaker.

This will be the tenth citizens' forum held by the Mayor since she assumed office in May of 2011.

"I'm looking forward to the opportunity to meet and interact with citizens," Mayor Pospisil said. "I invite everyone to come out and learn more about ways the City is working on their behalf."
