Community Invited to First Annual Fly Fishing EXPO

New Braunfels, TX -The City of New Braunfels's Parks and Recreation Department invites the public to attend the first annual Fly Fishing EXPO on Sunday, September 29th at Cypress Bend Park. Expo hours will be 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. and admission is free.

“Whether you’re an avid fly fisher or just want to know more about the sport, we’ve got it covered,” said Jason Miller, Athletic Programs Supervisor. This FREE event will explore different species of fish, flies and ties, tactics and techniques as well as fly fishing demonstrations on land and in the water. The event will also feature several hands-on activities, complete with a kids’ corner and several different stations hosted by local organizations and businesses including Gruene Outfitters, Action Anglers, Trout Unlimited, the Fly Fishers Club of New Braunfels, the International Federation of Fly Fishers and more.

Join your local community and the City’s Parks and Recreation Department for a fun filled day of fly fishing. For more information about the event please contact the City’s Parks and Recreation Department at 830-221-4370 or visit www.nbtexas.org/events.
