Library Hosts Celtic Christmas Concert with Danny O’Flaherty

New Braunfels, TX – Irish folksinger Danny O’Flaherty will perform a “Celtic Christmas” concert at the New Braunfels Public Library on Saturday, November 30th, at 2 p.m.

“We’re always thrilled to have Danny O’Flaherty perform for us,” said Gretchen Pruett, Library Director. “His Celtic Christmas concert last year was our most popular program of 2012. We expect this year’s performance to be equally enchanting.”

O’Flaherty also performed a patriotic concert in July of this year.

“This concert traces the roots of our present holiday celebrations in the Celtic countries of Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Cornwall, Brittany, and the Isle of Man,” Pruett noted. “Lighthearted and moving, Danny O’Flaherty tells the tale of unique and charming yuletide customs that evolved over the centuries in the nations of the Celts. O’Flaherty’s stories and songs are accompanied by his own impeccable and compelling musicianship.”

Free tickets to the event are available at the library Help Desk (two per person). There will also be a stand-by line at the door and after 2 p.m. those waiting will be allowed to take any seats that aren’t filled.
