Library Hosts Holiday Movie at Westside Community Center

New Braunfels, Texas — The New Braunfels Public Library will offer a special holiday program for children at the Westside Community Center, on Saturday, December 14th, at 6:00 p.m., featuring the film “Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe.” After the screening of the film, the program will conclude with a holiday craft for children as well as a snack and hot cocoa.

Volunteers from The New Braunfels Railroad Museum will also be on hand with model railroad exhibits for all to enjoy. Children may come to this program wearing comfortable pajamas, and they may bring a pillow and blanket as well. This event, sponsored by The Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library, is free and open to members of the community of all ages.

“This holiday movie and craft will be a perfect way for families to get into the holiday spirit together,” said Library Director Gretchen Pruett. “With the support of The Friends of the Library we’re able to offer these kinds of enriching, fun programs for our community.”

“Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe” is a 2005 film adaptation of the children’s novel by C.S. Lewis. It tells the story of the mystical winter adventures of English schoolchildren, and the appearance of Father Christmas - whose magical, healing drink ends the reign of the White Witch.

The Westside Community Center is located at 2932 South IH-35.
