Mayor's Citizens' Forum Scheduled

New Braunfels, Texas — On Tuesday, January 14th, from 6:30–8:00 p.m., Mayor Gale Pospisil will host her quarterly citizens' forum at the New Braunfels Civic/Convention Center, 375 S. Castell Avenue.

Shannon Mattingly, City of New Braunfels Planning and Community Development Director, will be the featured speaker.

“With the holidays behind us and the new year ahead of us, I look forward to kicking off 2014 with another Citizens' Forum,” said Mayor Pospisil. “I think everyone will be amazed at all the functions our Planning and Community Development Director and her department handle. I'm hoping for another good turnout of interested citizens.”
