Parks and Recreation Youth Citizens' Council Now Accepting Applications

New Braunfels, TX – The City of New Braunfels is now accepting applications for the Parks and Recreation Youth Citizens' Council. These are voluntary positions for teens age 13-17, and applications are being accepted through January, 22, 2014. The Council will meet every other Tuesday at 6:00 p.m. for informative presentations, planning future projects or to engage in service activities.

“The goal of the Youth Citizens' Council is to provide area youth an opportunity to impact their community and become active and informed citizens by learning about local government, community services and businesses,” said Erin Flores, Recreation Programs Supervisor. “This is a great way for students to earn community service hours, as well.”

Applications are available at the Landa Recreation Center, 164 Landa Park Drive, from 8:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, or online at <http://nbtexas.org/DocumentCenter/View/5698>. Further information about the Youth Citizens' Council, and other programs offered through the Parks and Recreation Department, is available by calling the Parks and Recreation Department at 830-221-4370, emailing eflores@nbtexas.org, or visiting www.nbtexas.org/fun.
