2013 Bond Program Community Recreation Center Project

New Braunfels, Texas – As part of the City of New Braunfels 2013 Bond Program, approved by voters this past May, the Community Recreation Center Project cited on Proposition 3 is underway. City Officials have scheduled a Public Meeting to gather input related to the development of the Community Recreation Center. Residents are encouraged to attend the meeting which will be held on Thursday, January 30th, beginning at 6:30 p.m., at the Landa Recreation Center located at 164 Landa Park Drive.

The project will develop a multi-generational community center that will offer a wide array of outreach opportunities and services for the entire community. Center amenities will be finalized after public input.

“All interested parties should attend and participate in this meeting,” said Stacey Dicke, Director of Parks and Recreation. “This meeting will be an opportunity to influence the development of the Community Recreation Center and a forum to express opinions and provide input regarding amenities and services.”

At the meeting, Brinkley Sargent Architects will present potential options for the center, facilitate discussions and answer questions. City staff will also be on hand to field questions about the project.
