Free Community Square Dances Offered Monthly

New Braunfels, TX – This Saturday, February 1st, will kick off the New Braunfels Parks and Recreation Department’s spring 2014 Community Square Dance series. Dances are held on the first Saturday of the month at 7:00 p.m. at the Westside Community Center, located at 2932 South IH-35.

“Square dancing is a fun activity that anyone, of any age, with no prior dancing experience, can learn and enjoy for a lifetime,” says Robin Kunkel, Recreation Manager. “These events are great for both skilled dancers and folks who want to give square dancing a try and see what it is all about. Grab your partner, or join another solo dancer, for these nights of light exercise and a whole lot of fun.”

Caller John Carlton will lead circle, line and square dances. Carlton will also teach easy moves before he calls the dance, so everyone can participate.

For more information about the program, please call the Parks and Recreation Department at 830-221-4370.
