Library Offers Doctor Who Program for Families

New Braunfels, TX - The New Braunfels Public Library will hold a “Doctor Who Fan Fest” for families on Saturday, March 8th from 3-5 p.m. This event will appeal to kids, teens, and parents who enjoy the creative British science fiction television show. Children and teens can make Doctor Who-related crafts, including bow-tie necklaces, Gallifreyan writing, and more. Participants who come dressed in costumes can enter a contest that includes awards for the Best Doctor and the Best Companion.

Through the decades—Doctor Who first aired on BBC in 1963—twelve different actors have played the Doctor, and Doctor Who is the longest running television science fiction program in history.

“Doctor Who has been around for over 50 years and is very popular for families to watch together. This is a thought-provoking, creative show, and we hope that everybody at our event will have a good time connecting with other fans,” said Youth Services Librarian Kit Ward-Crixell.

Library card holders can check out many seasons of Doctor Who from the library on DVD, including episodes with David Tennant, Tom Baker, Colin Baker, Matt Smith, and Paul McGann. They can also check out Doctor Who novels and non-fiction books on the television series.

This program is made possible with the support of The Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library.
