

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 21, 2014

CONTACT: Rusty Brockman, Director of Economic Development
Greater New Braunfels Chamber of Commerce

390 S. Seguin Ave.
New Braunfels, TX 78130

830-625-2385

rusty@nbcham.org

College and Career Fair Scheduled for April 29th

New Braunfels, TX –When New Braunfels Municipal Court Judge Rose Zamora, and Norma Herrera, Comal County Juvenile Probation Officer, made a request to the New Braunfels Chamber of Commerce’s Business and Education Partnership Committee (BEP) to host a college and career fair for local youth, the BEP committee immediately rose to the challenge and assisted in inviting many area colleges and technical schools to participate in the function. The fair will be held on April 29th, from 5-8 p.m., in Honors Hall, located at 390 S. Seguin Avenue in New Braunfels, Texas.

“In collaboration with Ms. Herrera and the Greater New Braunfels Chamber of Commerce, I am encouraging the youth of New Braunfels and surrounding cities to attend this event and learn more about opportunities in fields such as mechanics, nursing, barbering, cosmetology, culinary, and so much more,” said Judge Zamora. “If you, or someone you know, want to learn more about training options for exciting career opportunities, please plan to attend.”

Representatives from the following will be available at the fair: Alamo Colleges/Central Texas Technology Center; Alamo City Barber College; Howard Payne University; Wayland Baptist University; Seguin Beauty School; Texas State Technical College; Texas Lutheran University; Texas State University (invited); University of Texas at San Antonio (invited); and Workforce Alamo Career Center-New Braunfels.

For more information, please contact the New Braunfels Municipal Court at (830)221-4185, Comal County Juvenile Probation at (830) 221-1100, or Rusty Brockman, Chamber of Commerce, at (830) 625-2385.

###