City Names Human Resources Director

New Braunfels, Texas — The City of New Braunfels has announced that Mr. Gary Wuest has been selected as Human Resources Director. He will assume his duties beginning March 31st.

“Mr. Wuest not only brings valuable experience and perspective to the position, but his service to the community indicates his commitment to supporting the goals of the City and its residents,” said City Manager, Robert Camareno. “Through his activities as a board member of Communities in Schools and membership in the Wurstfest Association he is actively engaged in improvement of the quality of life enjoyed by our citizens.”

After obtaining a Master of Science in Administration and Management from Texas A&M University Kingsville, Mr. Wuest began his career with the Schertz-Cibolo-University City Independent School District, where he assumed progressively more responsibility and ultimately has served as the Director of Human Resources for over 1,700 employees since January of 2011.

As the Human Resource Director, Wuest will supervise the staff in development and administration of policies, procedures and programs including, but not limited to, employee/labor relations, Civil Service, employment, compensation, performance management, employee benefits, staff training and professional development, and compliance with all applicable federal, state and local laws, and City goals and objectives.
