Mayor Hosts Citizens' Forum

New Braunfels, Texas — On Wednesday, April 9th, from 6:30–8:00 p.m., Mayor Gale Pospisil will host her quarterly citizens' forum at the New Braunfels Civic/Convention Center, 375 S. Castell Avenue.

Jeff Jewell, City of New Braunfels Development Coordinator, will be the featured speaker.

“As the time of my service as the Mayor of New Braunfels draws to a close, I am pleased to conduct this final forum and fulfill this commitment to our citizens,” said Mayor Pospisil. “I think everyone will be pleased to hear about all the exciting development that is happening in our area and they will also receive an update on the ‘state of the City’ from Mr. Jewell. I encourage interested citizens to attend and be engaged in our community.”
