Singer/Songwriter Drew Kennedy to Perform at the New Braunfels Public Library

New Braunfels, TX - Singer/songwriter Drew Kennedy will perform original music at the New Braunfels Public Library on Thursday, April 10th at 7 p.m. Kennedy, a New Braunfels-based musician, is also a writer, whose novel Fresh Water in the Salton Sea is a companion piece to his original musical recording of the same name. Kennedy has received wide acclaim for his music, which The San Antonio Current describes as “an unpretentious brand of Americana.”

A touring musician, Kennedy will be spending much of his time performing in venues throughout Texas and New Mexico this spring, including locally at Gruene Hall.

“Drew Kennedy’s performance is part of a series of concerts hosted by the library. These performances allow people to hear talented musicians like Drew for free, and in a peaceful setting,” said Public Services Librarian Alix Samuels. “Fans of Americana music will no doubt enjoy hearing this Texas-troubadour in the intimate setting of our meeting room.”

This special musical event is made possible with the support of The Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library. For more information about this concert please call 830-221-4316.
