Two Individuals Arrested for Wald Road Arson

New Braunfels, TX – On April 17, 2014, investigators from the New Braunfels Fire Marshal's Office and the State Fire Marshal's Office arrested two New Braunfels men suspected of committing arson on a vehicle at 1339 Wald Road that occurred during the early morning hours of April 16th.

Jared Poehl, 18, was arrested without incident at his home in the 300 block of Acorn Drive. New Braunfels Police transported Poehl to the Comal County Sheriff's Office, where he was charged with one count of second-degree felony arson and one count of possession of a stolen firearm, a state jail felony.

The second man, 18-year-old Britton Bez, was arrested without incident near the intersection of FM 1044 and IH 35 after investigators spotted him driving in that area. Bez was also transported to the Comal County Sheriff's Office and charged with one count of second-degree felony arson.

A warrant was issued for a third male suspect, who received serious burns during the commission of this offense, and it will be served following the completion of his medical treatment.
