Wolfram M. Von-Maszewski to Speak at the New Braunfels Public Library on Prince Carl of Solms-Braunfels, Alwin Sorgel, and Viktor Bracht

New Braunfels, TX - Wolfram M. Von-Maszewski, who edited Prince Carl of Solms-Braunfels' Texas diary, will give a talk on German travelers in Texas in the 1840s at the New Braunfels Public Library on Tuesday, May 13th at 3:00 p.m.

Von-Maszewski, born and raised in Europe and educated at the University of Texas at Austin, has taught both anthropology and German. His publications include Index to the Trail Drivers of Texas, Handbook and Registry of German-Texan Heritage, and The German Volksfest in Brenham, Texas.

"This talk should appeal to any member of the community interested in the rich German heritage in Central Texas," said Library Director Gretchen Pruett. "We're pleased to be able to offer speakers at the library who discuss a wide range of interesting historical and cultural topics."

This program is made possible with the support of The Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library. For more information about this event please call Alix Samuels at 830-221-4316.
