FM 1863 and SH 46 Intersection

New Braunfels, TX – On Saturday, September 27th, the traffic signal at the intersection of FM 1863 and SH 46 was struck by a vehicle. The accident destroyed the traffic signal including the strain poles, signal heads, cabling and detection systems.

All power and signal indications are non-functional as a result of this damage, so temporary stop signs and advanced warning signs have been placed at the intersection. Travelers are advised to use caution in the area and to expect traffic delays.
