Garden Street Road Construction

New Braunfels, TX – The City of New Braunfels has announced that construction will take place on Garden Street, near the intersection of Seguin Avenue, on Thursday, October 23rd. A portion of Garden Street will be excavated for the relocation of signal wires and replacement of a portion of a damaged storm drain.

Signal lights will be flashing red and portable stops signs will be in place. Garden Street will be closed, beginning at 8 a.m., from Castell Avenue to Seguin Avenue. Commuters may experience traffic delays in the area. Work should be completed in one day, pending weather and other factors.

For additional information, contact John Cox, Street and Drainage Manager at (830) 221-4030.
