Harry Potter Halloween Event at the Library

New Braunfels, TX - The New Braunfels Public Library will host its free, annual Harry Potter Halloween event on Monday, Oct. 27th from 6 – 9 p.m. in the library’s meeting room.

Harry Potter fans are invited to revisit the first movie, “Harry Potter and the Sorcerer’s Stone.” Participants can enter the costume Contest, enjoy pumpkin cookies and apple cider, make a Golden Snitch, and enjoy the film. All ages are welcome to attend, but children under 13 must have a parent present. Registration is required and is available online at www.nbtexas.org/libraryevents or by calling 830-221-4300.

“Harry Potter continues to appeal to fans of all ages, especially around Halloween,” said Library Director Gretchen Pruett. “This event will allow fans of all ages, those who are just discovering the books and those who grew up with Harry Potter or read the books with their kids, to come in costume, enjoy snacks, make a craft and watch a great movie.”

This program is made possible with the support of The Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library.

For more information about this event contact Megan Clark at 830-221-4319.
