

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 24, 2014

CONTACT: Gretchen Pruett, Library Director
700 E. Common St.
New Braunfels, TX 78130
830.221.4322
gpruett@nbtexas.org

Danny O’Flaherty to Perform Holiday Concert at the Brauntex Theatre

New Braunfels, TX – On Friday, December 5th, Irish folksinger Danny O’Flaherty will perform a free holiday concert at the Brauntex Theatre. This event is sponsored by the New Braunfels Public Library, the Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library, and The Brauntex Theatre and begins at 2 p.m.

“Danny O’Flaherty has been such a popular performer for us in past years; we thought that if we could we’d love to have him play in a venue with great acoustics for a larger and appreciative audience. The Brauntex Theatre, a wonderful musical venue, has graciously offered their facility for this year’s show,” said Gretchen Pruett, Library Director. “If all the tickets are taken by the time of the show, we’ll allow people to wait at the theatre before the program, and be seated as space allows. This will be a fantastic holiday event, and if you haven’t seen Danny O’Flaherty perform, you shouldn’t miss this opportunity. We’re grateful to the Friends of the Library whose financial support make this kind of special event a reality.”

O’Flaherty’s “Celtic Christmas” traces the roots of our present holiday celebrations in the Celtic countries of Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Cornwall, Brittany, and the Isle of Man. Lighthearted and moving, Danny O’Flaherty tells the tale of unique and charming yuletide customs that evolved over the centuries in the nations of the Celts. O’Flaherty’s stories and songs are accompanied by his own impeccable and compelling musicianship.

Free tickets to the show are available at the Brauntex Theatre box office at 290 W. San Antonio Street and at the New Braunfels Public Library, 700 E. Common Street.

For more information about this event contact Alix Samuels at 830-221-4316.

###