City's Parks and Recreation Department Conducting Online Survey

New Braunfels, TX – From January 12th to January 30th, the New Braunfels Parks and Recreation Department will be conducting an online survey to evaluate programs and activities offered to residents. The survey will take 5-10 minutes to complete and respondents can register to win a Parks and Recreation family fun pack after completing a survey.

“The data collected will tell us what our patrons’ desire in terms of recreation services,” said Kelsey Heiden, Marketing Coordinator for the Parks and Recreation Department. “This feedback will help the department develop future programs, activities and events.”

The online survey can be accessed from a link on the Parks and Recreation homepage, www.nbtexas.org/parks or citizens can participate by going directly to the survey at www.surveymonkey.com/r/NBPARKS.
