Landa Park Golf Course at Comal Springs to Host NCAA Tournament

New Braunfels, TX - Landa Park Golf Course at Comal Springs will host 14 Division One Women's Golf Teams from across the country for the 2015 Delta Gamma Challenge, hosted by Texas State University.

The practice day will be on Saturday, February 14th, with the tournament proper beginning on Sunday. The girls will play 36 holes Sunday and finish with 18 holes Monday morning.

"We are very excited to host this tournament for Texas State and the women's teams traveling to compete," said Chad Donegan, General Manager and PGA Head Golf Professional for the Landa Park Golf Course at Comal Springs. "We're looking forward to displaying our newly renovated course and hope the players enjoy the new layout and beautiful hill country charm."

"Visitors and spectators are welcome to join us for the tournament and are encouraged to follow progress and scores on our website and social media sites," Donegan said. "Instagram and Twitter users can also follow the hashtags #ncaalandagolf and #DGTXST15 to view images from the tournament."
