Homicide Investigation Continues -
Increased Crime Stoppers Reward Expires Sunday

New Braunfels, Texas — The New Braunfels Police Department continues to investigate the May 21st, 2015, homicide of 23-year old Samantha Miranda. Detectives continue to follow up on all leads and are still seeking tips from the public.

Comal County Crime Stoppers has offered a reward of up to $10,000 for information that leads to an arrest and/or grand jury indictment. However, that increased reward was only valid for 30 days and is set to expire this Sunday, June 21, 2015. To remain anonymous and to collect the reward, contact Crime Stoppers at 830-620-TIPS (8477), leave a tip online at <http://comalcrimestoppers.org/>, or text a tip by texting “Comal” plus your message to CRIMES (274637).

Detectives are looking for tips about the crime itself, which happened on May 21, 2015, at approximately 12:45am in the 900 block of I-35 South, along the southbound access road. An initial call for shots fired led officers to the sidewalk in front of LoneStar Fiberglass Pools where they discovered the 23-year old victim who had suffered a fatal gunshot wound.

Again, if you have information that could be helpful to investigators, call New Braunfels Police directly at 830-221-4100 or leave an anonymous tip with Comal County Crime Stoppers, which is offering a reward of up to $10,000 for information that leads to an arrest and/or grand jury indictment. Remember, that increased reward is only valid through this Sunday, expiring on June 21, 2015. To remain anonymous and to collect the reward, contact Crime Stoppers at 830-620-TIPS (8477), leave a tip online at <http://comalcrimestoppers.org/>, or text a tip by texting “Comal” plus your message to CRIMES (274637).
