New Braunfels Parks & Recreation Celebrates National Visit a Park Day

New Braunfels – Friday, October 2nd is National Visit a Park Day and to celebrate the New Braunfels Parks and Recreation Department is hosting a free outdoor movie at Fischer Park. The feature, A Turtle's Tale : Sammy's Adventure, will be played on a big screen at the Fischer Park Amphitheater at 7:00 p.m.

“Bring your lawn chair, or a cozy blanket, and enjoy a movie under the stars in Fischer Park,” said Robin Kunkel, Recreation Manager. “Our sponsor, Taco Palenque, will be on site with dinner, dessert and snacks available for purchase, but feel free to bring your own refreshments - just no glass.”

In addition to the scheduled movie, the public is encouraged take advantage of Visit a Park Day and visit a local park. To view a complete list of parks in New Braunfels visit: bit.ly/NBPARKS or to view the entire listing of fall recreation offerings visit: bit.ly/Fall2015FunThings

“Our New Braunfels park system boasts over 500 acres of park land for residents to use for playing, hiking and other forms of recreation,” said Kelsey Heiden, Marketing Coordinator. “From getting physically active to learning a new skill or enjoying nature, your Parks and Recreation Department has something so everyone can enjoy the benefits of local parks.”

Visit a Park Day is a national event created by the National Recreation and Park Association (NRPA) that provides people with the opportunity to learn about offerings within parks that can spark healthy habits, renew a sense of appreciation for nature, and inspire ongoing visitation of parks for lifelong enjoyment.

For more information about Visit a Park Day, local parks or the free movie, call the City's Parks and Recreation Department at 830-221-4350.
