Celtic Christmas Concert with Danny O'Flaherty Cancelled

New Braunfels, TX - Due to unforeseen circumstances the New Braunfels Public Library's Celtic Christmas Concert with folksinger Danny O'Flaherty has been cancelled. The event was scheduled for Thursday, December 3rd at 2:00 p.m. at the Brauntex Theatre. A new Christmas concert program has been scheduled for the following Sunday.

On Sunday, December 6th at 2:00 p.m. the New Braunfels Public Library will present a Christmas concert by the vocal trio, "Destination." Based in San Marcos, "Destination" performs in costume as the Andrews Sisters, singing popular yuletide songs in the style of the legendary singers of the swing and boogie-woogie era. The concert will be held in the Library's meeting room and seating is first-come, first-served.

For more information contact Public Service Librarian Ben Pensiero at 830-221-4325.
