Invasive Visual Recording

New Braunfels, Texas — The New Braunfels Police Department is seeking tips from the public following an incident of Invasive Visual Recording at the New Braunfels Public Library in the 700 block of East Common Street. On Nov. 10th, 2015, at approximately 5:30pm a 33-year old woman was in the library parking lot and was placing her child in a car seat when a man attempted to use a cell phone to film or photograph up the woman's skirt.

The suspect, who was caught on the library's surveillance cameras, is described as an Hispanic male in his early to mid 30's, standing about 5-feet 10-inches tall, weighing about 230-pounds, with a shaved head. He was wearing a gray plaid button-up shirt, baggy jeans, white shoes, and was seen carrying a red box of cigarettes. Based on surveillance images, the suspect appears to have tattoos on his left forearm and he was using a black, larger-style cell phone. The man left the scene on foot and may possibly live in the surrounding area.

Anyone with information on the identity of this suspect is asked to call New Braunfels Police or Comal County Crime Stoppers. Comal County Crime Stoppers is offering a reward of up to $2000 for information that leads to an arrest and/or grand jury indictment. To remain anonymous and to collect the reward, contact Crime Stoppers at 830-620-TIPS (8477), leave a tip online at <http://comalcrimestoppers.org/>, or text a tip by texting "Comal" plus your message to CRIMES (274637). To contact the New Braunfels Police Department directly about the identity of this suspect, call Detective Joe Tovar 830-221-4141.

Under the Texas Penal Code (IPC 20.15), Invasive Visual Recording is a State Jail Felony punishable by 180 days to 2 years in a state jail facility, and a fine of up to $10,000.
