Aggravated Robbery

New Braunfels, Texas — On August 1, 2016, at approximately 9:45pm, the New Braunfels Police Department was called to the Garden Inn of New Braunfels hotel in the 1000 block of Business I-35 North for reports of a stabbing. Officers arrived and found two victims, a 19-year old male from New Braunfels and an 18-year old male from New Braunfels, both with non-life threatening laceration wounds. Further investigation revealed that three people had entered the men's hotel room, assaulted them, taken cash and drugs, and then fled the scene. A search of the area was unsuccessful in locating the suspects, but the victims were able to give officers descriptions of the suspects, including their names. One of the two victims was transported to Christus Santa Rosa Hospital New Braunfels and was treated and released.
