4H at Westside Community Center

New Braunfels, TX – The Westside Community Center (WCC) is partnering with the Texas AgriLife Extension Center of Comal County and offering free, fun, and engaging activities for elementary aged children through their 4H program. 4H is the youth development program that focuses on the needs, concerns and interests of young people. Its aim is to help youth gain a positive self-concept, rational social behavior, knowledge and problem-solving capabilities.

Parent informational sessions will be on the following dates: Wednesday, September 14th 3:30-4:30 p.m. for Kinder-2nd graders and Wednesday, September 21st, 3:30-4:30 p.m. for 3rd-5th graders.

Krystal Bateen and Victoria Grissom, agents with the Comal County Extension office, will engage participants with cooking and nutrition sessions, crafts/textiles, gardening, and much more. Classes will be held at Westside Community Center starting on Wednesday, September 28th through Wednesday, November 16th.

“We are thrilled with this partnership and the positive learning projects that will be taking place here at WCC. It’s a great opportunity for participants to enjoy projects that are educational and enjoyable, and Krystal and Victoria have such an amazing reputation with youth related programs, so it’s going to be a lot of fun for the kids,” said Outreach Coordinator, Jennifer Hernandez. “To register, please visit the City of New Braunfels Public Library calendar (at www.nbtexas.org/1511/Library-Calendar) and click on the appropriate orientation date and session for your child’s grade level. You may also call the WCC office and register by phone at 830-221-4630.”

NOTE: There are initially 25 spots available for students in grades K-2nd and 25 spots available for students in grade 3rd-5th.
