City Comprehensive Plan Update Advisory Group Members Sought

New Braunfels, Texas — The City of New Braunfels is seeking interested individuals to participate on the subcommittees for development of the community’s Comprehensive Plan update. A community’s comprehensive plan is a long-range vision document that guides local and regional decision making through policy development. It is community-driven, therefore in addition to public meetings, surveys, town halls, interactive online exercises, activities at events, etc., there will also be nine Plan Element Advisory Groups. These topic-specific advisory groups include:

- Growth and Future Land Use
- Urban Design and Cultural, Heritage and Historic Preservation
- Parks and Recreation
- Economic Competitiveness
- Tourism
- Transportation
- Natural Resources and Infrastructure
- Education and Youth
- Facilities, Services and Capital Improvements

“We are seeking interested individuals, industry experts, neighborhood leaders, anyone with a love of New Braunfels and its special sense of place to have direct input into how the city accommodates the coming growth and population,” said Planning and Community Development Director Christopher Looney. “Those who want to share their ideas for the future are encouraged to participate. People from all walks of life are encouraged to apply.”

More information about the Plan Element Advisory Groups and the online submittal form can be found on the City’s website at <http://www.nbtexas.org/CivicAlerts.aspx?AID=1620>. Application forms are also available at City Hall, 424 South Castell Avenue, and are due by Friday, September 30th.

For additional details about the Comprehensive Plan, email Mr. Looney at clooney@nbtexas.org or call him at (830) 221-4055.
