Haz Mat Training Drill Set

New Braunfels, TX – The GuadaComa Emergency Response Group, along with Union Pacific Railroad, will be conducting a hazardous materials drill as part of their on-going training on Monday, November 14th. The group consists of the following participating cities: New Braunfels, Seguin, Cibolo, Schertz and Selma.

The drill, which will be held at the rail yard located behind the City/County Annex at 424 S. Castell Avenue, will began at 9:00 a.m. and conclude at approximately 1:00 p.m. Other participating agencies, including the Schertz EMS Ambus, will be utilizing the Civic/Convention Center Parking adjacent to the rail yard.

“This drill will be the first major drill of the GuadaComa Emergency Response Group,” said Fire Chief Kenneth Jacks. “We will be testing communications, procedures and response capabilities of the program and team.”
