New Braunfels Public Library Hosting Local Author Fair

New Braunfels, TX – The New Braunfels Public Library is hosting a local author fair on Saturday, November 12th from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Each author will speak about themselves, their books and their writing process for about 10 minutes. The public will then have a chance to visit with each author. The library is located at 700 E. Common Street.

“This program will give local authors another chance to reach out to their community,” commented Toni Davenport, Adult Services Librarian. “It also gives the public a chance to meet with and support local authors and to discuss their works.”

Attending authors will include:

- Jayme Blaschke: Inside the Texas Chicken Ranch
- Ron Clark: The Prophet’s Secret
- Ron Coley: The Fountains of Saint Mark: The Amazing San Marcos Springs.
- I.B. Hunger: The Healing Fountain and Searching the Ruins
- Rosemarie Leissner Gregory & Arlene Krueger Seales: New Braunfels’ Historic Landa Park: its springs and its people
- L.M. Nelson: Scrubs and Sand & Sutures
- Barbara O’Connor: Goodbye, Paris Nash and Enlightening Elizabeth Moss
- Naomi Patterson: Death by Catgut and Penumbra Secrets

This program is free, no registration is necessary and is made possible with the support of The Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library.
