New Braunfels Comprehensive Plan Website Unveiled

New Braunfels, Texas — The City of New Braunfels is embarking upon the first update to its community-wide Comprehensive Plan since 2006. The Comprehensive Plan is a citizen driven process that outlines community goals and objectives for long range decision making.

The New Braunfels Comprehensive Plan, dubbed Envision New Braunfels: A Special Place by Design, is featured on a new website so the public can stay up to date and obtain information about the plan and the process as the community effort moves along.

“Visit the website often and take a look at the progress you and your fellow citizens are making in planning for the future of New Braunfels,” said Planning and Community Development Director Christopher Looney. “Like us on Facebook too, at www.facebook.com/NBCompPlan!”

The new website can be found at www.envisionnewbraunfels.org. It is also accessible from the City’s website at www.nbtexas.org from the Planning and Community Development Department page.
