Summer Concerts at the New Braunfels Public Library

New Braunfels, TX - New Braunfels based The Numinous (Luke Leverett and Chris Compton) will be performing at the library twice this summer. On Tuesday, June 6th from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m., The Numinous will be joined by San Antonio singer/songwriter Chris Taylor. And, to cap off the summer programs for adults, they will return on Thursday July 26th, at 6:30 p.m., joined by Foscoe Jones, whose influences range from folk and Americana to blues.

“The music scene in New Braunfels is booming with talent,” commented Toni Davenport, Adult Services Librarian. “We’re excited to bring a slice of that talent to our library patrons both the first full week and the last full week of our summer schedule. These concerts will be great bookends to all of our wonderful library programs this summer.”

The concerts are free, no registration is necessary and it is made possible with the support of The Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library.

For more information call the library at 830-221-4300.
