Fischer Park Nature Education Center to Host Texas Hunters Education Class

New Braunfels, Texas – The City of New Braunfels Parks and Recreation Department has partnered with Texas Parks and Wildlife (TPWD) to host a Hunter Education Course on Sunday, September 24th from 9:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. at the Fischer Park Nature Education Center.

“The Hunter Education Course is designed for novice or young hunters, ages nine years and older,” said Mike Wallace, Nature Center Supervisor. “The course will cover the core competencies of firearm and hunting safety, hunting ethics and wildlife conservation.”

The fee for the course and certification is $15.00. Those interested in participating should call the Fischer Park Nature Education Center at 830-221-4378 to reserve a spot. Cash payment will be payable to the TPWD instructor on the day of the course.

For additional information about the Hunter Education Course, or other nature oriented programs, contact the Fischer Park Nature Education Center at 830-221-4378.
