Library Launches Teen Leadership Initiative

New Braunfels, TX – The New Braunfels Public Library is looking for teens who would like to be more involved with their community and giving them three new ways to become more empowered citizens.

The initiative will create opportunities for teens to learn about librarianship as a career, offer opinions and reports to the Library Advisory Board, and plan events for other students.

“Teens in our community are smart, responsible, and looking for a way to make a difference. By amplifying their voices while they are young, we are encouraging them to become engaged citizens as adults,” said Youth Services Librarian Ariel Cummins.

For more information about eligibility requirements or to download applications for the programs, please visit <https://newbraunfels.libguides.com/teens/leadership> or stop by any library location.
