Cuban Artist Lorenzo Shening Visits Westside Community Center

New Braunfels, Texas — Lorenzo Shening will be visiting the Westside Community Center on Monday, August 6th to display and speak about his art piece “Love Me, Love Me Not.” There will be two sessions, one at 3:00 pm for children five and older and one at 7:00 p.m. that is open to all. The Center is located at 2932 S. IH-35 Frontage Road in New Braunfels.

The afternoon session will require registration and will feature a hands-on project for children attending - creating a tambourine out of bottle caps. The evening session will be a discussion of the art piece featured, the process of creating art from found objects and life as an artist in Cuba.

“One of our library patrons met this wonderful artist during their visit to Cuba and brought him to our attention. When we heard he was touring the United States, we knew we wanted our patrons to be able to hear about and experience his unique artistic perspective,” said Library Director Gretchen Pruett.

To register a child for this program, visit the library calendar at <https://nbtexas.libcal.com/event/4401628>.

These programs are free and open to the public. No registration is required for the evening session. Many library programs, such as this, are made possible with the support of The Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library.
