New Braunfels, TX — More than 60,000 books, CDs, DVDs, Texana, comic books and graphic novels, religious texts and collectibles will be available at the Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library's 33rd annual book sale, which raises funds each year to support free-to-the-public programs offered at the library.

The book sale will be held on Friday, October 5th, and Saturday, October 6th at the New Braunfels Civic/Convention Center, 375 S. Castell Ave. Admission to the book sale is free. Standard prices range from $.25 to $2, while collectibles will vary in price.

On Friday, doors will open at 9:00 a.m., and the sale will run until 7:30 p.m. On Saturday, the sale will be from 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., and a brown bag sale will take place from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m., during which time patrons may fill a provided brown bag for $5.

A preview night will be held Thursday, October 4th, from 5:00 to 7:30 p.m. Those interested in attending the preview night can either join Friends of the Library by 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, October 3rd, or pay a $25 admission fee.

"In 2018, the Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library gave more than $65,000 to fund library programs and over $40,000 in donated library materials," said Library Director Gretchen Pruett.
"Their support allows library staff to present the best possible programming in the area and is the margin of excellence that our community has come to rely on."
