Westside Community Center's Citizenship Classes Continue with Second Session

New Braunfels, TX — The first session of Citizenship Classes at Westside Community Center will soon be wrapping up, but a second session will be offered beginning Wednesday, October 17th, and continuing weekly through November 7th.

“Currently, the class is going well, and we are looking to extend the class for new registrants,” said Westside Community Center’s Outreach Coordinator Jennifer Hernandez. “Mabel Brown has taught citizenship classes, ESL classes and Spanish classes in the community and continues to not only enjoy teaching Spanish through programming funded by the Friends of the Library, but also to give her own personal time and volunteer to use the wide variety of citizenship class resources to assist students in preparation for the exam.”

Registration is recommended for this class, though walk-ins will also be welcomed. Registration is available online at <https://nbtexas.libcal.com/event/3996362>. Classes are conducted in English.

Citizenship Classes will be held from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. in the downstairs classroom at the Westside Community Center, located at 2932 S. IH Frontage Rd. in New Braunfels.
