On Your Mark, Get Set, ‘Glow’ to Library’s Evening Storytime Event

New Braunfels, TX — Families looking to make the most out of wintertime’s early darkness need look no further than Glow in the Dark Storytime at the New Braunfels Public Library, located at 700 E. Common Street.

This special storytime event will be held during the evening of Wednesday, January 16th, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

“We wanted to take advantage of the early nightfall by offering this fun program celebrating all things that glow in the dark,” said Youth Services Librarian Jenny Rodriguez. “We’re going to read stories by flashlight, dance with glowsticks, make fireflies to take home, and more.”

This program is free and open to the public.

Many library programs, including Glow in the Dark Storytime, are made possible with the support of the Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library.

For more information about Glow in the Dark Storytime or other programs, contact the New Braunfels Public Library at 830-221-4300 or visit www.nbtexas.org/Library.
