Teen Advisory Board Extends Role of Young Library Patrons

New Braunfels, TX — Teens looking to have a voice in programs, books and space available to them at the New Braunfels Public Library need look no further, as the library is hosting its first Teen Advisory Board meeting on Saturday, February 2nd, from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. in the library, located at 700 E. Common St.

“We really care about the teens of New Braunfels and want them to feel welcome and engaged in their community,” said Youth Services Librarian Courtney Meissner. “We want to let them know that we are here as a resource for them and that their voices matter.”

The meeting — which will be held during the second hour of February 2nds Drop-In Volunteer Hours, so teens can also earn volunteer credit by attending — will be a chance for teens to help develop new programs based on their interests and to give the youth services department input on the youth area and books the library purchases for teens and young adults.

Any teen library patron is welcome to be a part of the Teen Advisory Board.

For more information about the board, Drop-In Volunteer Hours or other library programs, contact the library at 830-221-4300 or visit www.nbtexas.org/library.
