Library's Concerts with Mr. Will Promise Cheer for Children

New Braunfels, TX — Austin musician “Mr. Will” Dupuy will be bringing his fun, spirited tunes, that encourage children to clap, sing and dance along, to two performances scheduled for Friday, March 29th, at the New Braunfels Public Library, located at 700 E. Common St.

“Mr. Will’s catchy tunes and infectious energy will have everyone dancing and singing along,” said Youth Services Librarian Jenny Rodriguez. “You’re guaranteed to have a good time!”

“The performances are set for 10:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. and are for children of all ages, but children five and under will especially love it,” Rodriguez said. “Mr. Will’s sing-along style incorporates equal parts teaching and performing for energetic young audiences. Infectious melodies combined with upbeat lyrics make him beloved among preschoolers and early-elementary students.”

Mr. Will’s concert is funded in part by the Texas Commission on the Arts.

Many library programs, including this event, are made possible with the support of the Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library.
