Korean Traditional Dancer Brings Talent to New Braunfels Public Library

New Braunfels, TX — Korean traditional dancer Lee Young will be at the New Braunfels Public Library on Monday, Oct. 7th, from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. to lead an interactive, educational program that introduces attendees of all ages to Korean culture and dance.

“We’re very excited to have Ms. Young bring her program to the library,” said Youth Services Librarian Jenny Rodriguez. “The audience will hear a presentation about Korean culture and be treated to a performance of traditional dance. Ms. Young will also have a selection of traditional outfits and instruments on view for audience members who would like a closer look.”

According to Young, traditional Korean dance is known for its elegant movements combined with beautiful costumes.

This program is free and open to the public but is especially recommended for ages eight and up.

Many library programs, including Korean Culture and Dance, are made possible with the support of the Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library.
