2019 Daddy Daughter Sweetheart Dance Tickets on Sale November 1st

New Braunfels– Tickets for the Annual Daddy/Daughter Sweetheart Dance will go on sale on Friday, November 1st, at 8:00 a.m. The dance will be held at Wursthalle on Friday January 31st and Saturday, February 1st, 2020.

The dance features three seatings, the first seating will be from 7:00 pm until 9:00 p.m. on Friday. On Saturday, the seatings are from 4:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m., and from 7:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. Individuals or groups interested in a particular seating should request the specific date/time when purchasing their tickets.

“This event sells out every year, those interested should be sure to purchase tickets early,” noted Cassandra Paddock, Recreation Programs Supervisor. “If you are purchasing tickets for another couple, make sure you have their household account information available. This year we are offering registration online and would like to encourage everyone to call in advance to setup their household accounts as this will expedite the registration experience.”

Tickets can be purchased in person at the Parks and Recreation Administrative Office located at 110 Golf Course Road or online to household account holders at signup.nbparksandrec.com. Event tickets are $25 per person and include admission to a themed ballroom, dancing, refreshments, and a keepsake for the daughters. Optional dance tickets that include horse-drawn carriage rides are available, for $35 per person and must be purchased in advance, as these tickets are limited.

For additional information contact the Parks and Recreation Department at 830-221-4370.
