County Line Road Incident Update

UPDATE (09-25-19): The investigation into the incident that ended on County Line Road on 09-24-19 continues by the New Braunfels Police Department. The preliminary results of that investigation indicate that the three people inside the suspect vehicle were all known to each other and that the incident began with a verbal disturbance between a 16-year old male and an 18-year old female outside of a residence in the Dove Crossing neighborhood.

The driver of the vehicle, 18-year old Madison Munoz of Katy, was briefly treated for non-life threatening injuries at Resolute Hospital before being taken into custody and transported to the Comal County Jail where she was charged with Evading Arrest in a Vehicle (a state jail felony).

A 16-year old male from San Antonio was a passenger in the vehicle and had a Directive to Apprehend against him out of Bexar County for Evading Arrest in a Vehicle (also a felony). After being briefly treated for non-life threatening injuries at Resolute Hospital he was detained and placed into the custody of the Guadalupe County Juvenile Detention Center.

A 14-year old female from San Antonio was the third occupant of the vehicle. She was uninjured and no charges are expected to be filed against her.

The investigation into the entire incident is ongoing by the New Braunfels Police Department Criminal Investigations Division and additional charges may be pending.

ORIGINAL RELEASE: On today's date (09-24-19), at approximately 3:20pm, officers with the New Braunfels Police Department were called to the area of Dove Crossing and Eagle Pass for reports of a disturbance where a female was being forced into a vehicle by a male. Officers arrived in the area and located the vehicle, a dark gray Nissan passenger car, and attempted a traffic stop, but the driver of the vehicle fled at a high rate of speed while driving erratically and with items being thrown from the car. The vehicle then nearly crashed into another vehicle, at which point an NBPD officer fired his weapon, successfully striking one of the vehicle's tires. The suspect vehicle then cut across the median in an attempt to turn around and continue fleeing, but another NBPD officer used his patrol vehicle to force the suspect car into a tree along the side of County Line road, successfully disabling the vehicle. The vehicle was occupied by a total of three people: two females and a male. The male and one of the females were transported to Resolute Health Hospital by New Braunfels EMS with non-life-threatening injuries. All 3 of the people in the vehicle have since been detained and are being questioned by NBPD detectives as part of the ongoing investigation. NBPD remains on scene and the portion of County Line Road from Chartwell to Drawbridge Trail remains closed while that investigation continues.
