Concert Raises Money for New Braunfels Public Library Foundation

New Braunfels, TX — New Braunfels native and musical performer Yesenia McNett will pay tribute to longtime singer Linda Ronstadt in a benefit concert for the New Braunfels Public Library Foundation (NBPLF).

The concert, set for Thursday, October 11th, at 7:30 p.m., will be held at the Brauntex Performing Arts Theatre, located at 290 W. San Antonio St. in New Braunfels.

“The tribute to Linda Ronstadt grew from an opportunity presented by the Brauntex to bring the music of a beloved artist to the stage,” said McNett. “I grew up with Linda’s music, with her songs and her sound that dominated the ‘70s and ‘80s, and the audience can happily sing and clap along to hit after hit. I paired a great band with great music and was approached by members of the New Braunfels Library Foundation almost immediately to recreate our success for their wonderful organization.”

“We are bringing this great music back to raise money for the Library Foundation, which helps bring programs, services, and improvements to the library that are not normally met by public funding,” she said. “These services benefit everyone, young and old, in New Braunfels and the outlying county, and I’m proud to team up to support this pillar in our community.”

In addition to her own shows, McNett has been the featured guest vocalist for such artists as Gil Gutierrez and Alex Meixner. In 2015, she paid tribute to the rock band Heart at the Brauntex.

Tickets for the concert are on sale now for $25. This show is not an option for a season package. For questions about tickets, call the Brauntex at 830-627-0808.

The benefit concert is sponsored by Black’s Barbecue and the New Braunfels Herald-Zeitung.

The NBPLF is a 501(c)3 organization; all donations are tax-deductible. The Foundation’s mission is to secure private funding to meet the library’s needs for program development and improvement of services and facilities that are not normally met by public funding.
