Municipal Court Observes National Municipal Courts Week

New Braunfels, TX – New Braunfels Municipal Court is proud to announce a Municipal Court Week celebration from November 5-9, 2018 in the courtroom at 550 Landa Street, New Braunfels. Municipal Court Week is a week, prescribed by the 85th Texas Legislature in House Resolution 799, dedicated to appreciating the contributions that Texas municipal courts make to the safety and well-being of communities.

“More people come in contact with municipal courts than all other Texas courts combined, and the public perception of the Texas judicial system is largely dependent upon the experience our community members have in our court,” said New Braunfels Municipal Court Judge, Rose Zamora.

Scheduled activities are free and open to the public:

Monday, Nov. 5th - 3:30 p.m.: What IS an Occupational Driver’s License? Judge Zamora & Judge Rust

Tuesday, Nov. 6th – 6:00 p.m.: Understanding the Driver Responsibility Program; presentation by DPS

Wednesday, Nov. 7th - 4:45 p.m. and 6:00 p.m.: Teen Attorney Meet & Greet and Teen Court

Thursday, Nov. 8th – 1:00 to 2:00 p.m.: Mitigating Youth Fire Setting Behavior; Lt. Greg Guenther, NBFD

Friday, Nov. 9th – 3:00 to 5:00 p.m.: Preschoolers Open House

New Braunfels Municipal Court staff will be available to answer questions about the court’s role in the community and services provided.

“We want the Court to be utilized as a community resource and invite folks by to receive educational materials and celebratory goodies during Municipal Courts Week,” said Court Administrator, Robin Shellard.
