City Council meets via Video Conference

New Braunfels, Texas — The New Braunfels City Council will continue its schedule of regular meetings on the second and fourth Mondays of each month. The next City Council meeting will take place via video conference on April 13 at 6:00 p.m.

“We want to continue to provide a safe environment during the response to the Coronavirus, therefore City Councilmembers and City staff will conduct the meeting remotely,” states Mayor Casteel. “In the interest of transparency and safety, we will individually join the meeting via our homes as we adhere to the guidelines of Stay Home, Work Safe.”

“As always, the public can join the City Council meeting to watch, listen, or discuss topics on the posted agenda,” stated City Manager Robert Camareno. “Members of the public wishing to participate in the City Council meeting or speak on a specific agenda item, can join by visiting on Zoom through this link: www.nbtexas.org/citycouncil. “We ask for people to enter in their email address, full name, and observe meeting protocols and customs during the meeting.”

Those wishing to join the meeting without video can call: 888 475 4499 (Toll Free) or 877 853 5257 (Toll Free) and use webinar ID: 845 166 649

City Council meetings, including this video conference, can still be viewed live online and on television via the City Website, or Spectrum Channel 21 or U-verse Channel 99.

City Council agendas can be viewed online.

Furthermore, anyone wishing to provide Citizens’ Communications to City Council for something not on the City Council agenda, can do so before the meeting by using one of these three options:

- Email: citizencomments@nbtexas.org
- Voicemail: 830-221-4299
- Online: www.nbtexas.org/comment

These emails, voicemails, and messages will be distributed to the City Council prior to City Council meetings.
